

59 Brightly

(The music continues as they snap their fingers and turn. But the BOYS' attention has been caught by the entrance of NETTIE, coming out of the house carrying a tray piled high with doughnuts. She is followed by a LITTLE GIRL, carrying a large tray of coffee cups.)

NETTIE: Here, boys! Here's some doughnuts and coffee. All to! (Crosses to center.)

MEN: (As they fall to, speeches overlapping.) Doughnuts, honey...! That's our Nettie...! Yer heart's in the right place, Nettie...! Lemme in there...! Quit yer shovin'...

NETTIE: Here now, don't jump at me like you was a lotta animals in a menag'ry! (She laughs as she crosses over to the GIRLS.)

WOMEN: Nettie...! After us ain't tellin' 'em...! Watchere doin' that fer...?

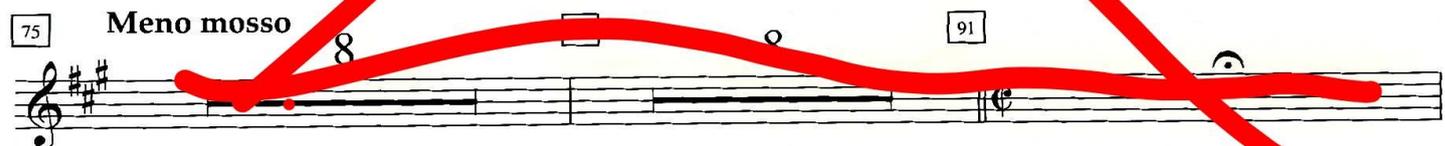

NETTIE: They been diggin' clams since five this mornin' - I see 'em myself, down on the beach.

WOMEN: After the way they been pesterin' and annoyin' you...!

CARRIE: Nettie, yer a soft-hearted niny!

NETTIE: Oh, y'can't blame 'em. First clambake o' the year they're always like this. It's like unlockin' a door, and all the crazy notions they kep' shet up fer the winter come whoopin' out into the sunshine.

This year's jest lil' ev'ry other. [GO ON]

No. 23 You'll Never Walk Alone

(Julie & Nettie)

CUE:

JULIE: The words? Sure. Used to sing 'em in school.

NETTIE: Sing 'em now – see if you know what they mean. [MUSIC]

Moderato
